Giving more of my love

I've been thinking about us lately, about our life and about our love
We're together since many years , happy with us and our three girls
Something I wanna tell you , so emotional and close to my heart
One thing I want to give more to you , that our wildest dreams come true.

Giving you more of my love ... with a kiss or two
Giving you more of my love ... the rest is up to you
Giving you more of my love ... is all I wanna do
Giving you more of my.

We've been busy over all those years, trying to get our duties done,
We've lost ourselves many times, between business, and family and friends

Giving you more of my love ... with a kiss or two
Giving you more of my love ... the rest is up to you
Giving you more of my love ... is all I wanna do
Giving you more of

Giving you, giving you giving you, more of my love
Giving you, giving you giving you, more of my love
Giving you, giving you giving you, more of my love
Giving you, giving you giving you, more of my love

What we need is more quality time, just for you and for me
So I can give more love to you, that our wildest dreams come true

Giving you more of my love ... with a kiss or two
Giving you more of my love ... the rest is up to you
Giving you more of my love

..... so our dreams come true
..... so our dreams come true
..... so our dreams come true
..... so our dreams come true.
