Losing a friend

Looking back so many signs I didn't see
Words between the lines that I could not read
Always thought that this could never be
Between two friends like you and me

Losing a friend is when it hurts so bad
Losing a friend is when it drives you mad
Losing a friend is when you get it too late
Losing a friend is when love turns to fate

You're feeling sad and hurt deep inside
You're talking to yourself you wanna hide
Trying to get answers all alone
Why can't you let your friend just go?

Losing a friend is when it hurts so bad
Losing a friend is when it drives you mad
Losing a friend is when you get it too late
Losing a friend is when love turns to fate

Finally I have been right and wrong
There's no way this battle could be won
Only the scars would stay for long
That's why I am writing you this song

Losing a friend is when it hurts so bad
Losing a friend is when it drives you mad
Losing a friend is when you get it too late
Losing a friend is when love turns to fate

.... when love turns to fate
.... when love turns to fate
.... when love turns to fate.
